

TURN THE TAB

To the people that love Camp Wesley Pines,

All of my life I've been privileged to have good friends around me, privileged to have been able to do the work that I love. For 15 years I worked at Camp Wesley Pines as a counselor, a camp director, and a volunteer when needed. Then, for 17 years I served as Assistant Director, then Executive Director.

For a number of years I have tried to express a deep and profound love for Camp Wesley Pines and to be able to say what I feel in my heart. And now I have that chance.

I know that a lot of you feel the same way about Camp Wesley Pines as I do. Oh I know we gripe about some of the imperfections, but sometimes that's good. Especially if it gets us working together to make things better.

That is the reason that I am writing this. The camp has been trying to raise money to remodel the Tabernacle. We are close to meeting that challenge, which is $500,000.00. As we close out this year I hope that you will think about helping us finish the job we started.

I can't even guess at the number of lives that have been changed over the years in that old Tabernacle. I know that God has been touching the lives of many young people and adults in worship there.

And now I think of what is ahead for those to come in a newly remodeled Tabernacle.

My prayer is that you will pray about this and ask God for guidance in how you may be a part in this mission.

May God Bless You,

Bro. Ted Giordano

Words From Past Campers

"...The Tab holds so many memories, from the seemingly never ending games of ships and sailors, to sharing the skits that we spent all week rehearsing, or watching the slideshow of pictures from the week with parents on our final morning. My personal favorite thing in the Tab, though, is Friday night worship. On the final night, before everyone has to go home the next day, we all gather in the Tab and sing together. This is one of my favorite parts of camp. Music has always had a big impact on my life and getting to sing with everyone is something that I always look forward to... "

- Beth Weems

"I've loved Camp Wesley Pines through many seasons; as a camper, Junior High camp director, staff trainer, volunteer, and now youth minister bringing my own group. I have witnessed so much in our beloved "Tab"! Youth surrendering their life to Christ, staff comforting campers, kids laughing hysterically during a game, crazy camp skits, kids on their faces weeping before God, lights being broken, praises ringing out in song, kids covered in shaving cream covered in cheese puffs, windows busted, chains being broken, relationships restored, hearts changed, souls saved, calls made and Christ exalted! And each every one of those was sacred! The TAB has been a shelter for campers to come as they are and be transformed by the Risen Savior! A sacred space where worship happens through praise, His Word, games, laughter, conversation ... every bit of it worship! - Jana Jobe

WAYS TO GIVE

Endowment- Create an endowment for Camp Wesley Pines. You can specify a purpose or allow us to choose how the income is spent. An endowment creates a principal investment which generates income for the benefit of CWP for years to come.

Donor Advised Fund- Contributions to a donor advised fund are tax deductible when they are given. The donor can then make recommendations for contributions to CWP when they are ready. This is a great tool for appreciated assets.

Legacy Gift- Leave a gift to CWP at your death through

- o Life Insurance
- o Direct beneficiary designation of an IRA or 401(k) account
- o Specific bequest in your will
- o Gift of property or stock

Current Gifts can be given a number of ways:

- o Online via credit card at www.wesleypines.com/give/
The contribution will be credited accordingly.
- o By mailing a check or money order to Camp Wesley Pines.
1095 Camp Wesley Pines Rd. Hazlehurst, MS 39083
- o Bring cash, check or money order to the office.
- o Stock transfers directly to Camp Wesley Pines
- o Appreciated property or other assets which we can sell to generate resources for our mission. These can include:
 - Real estate
 - Stocks
 - Vehicles
 - Collectibles
 - Mineral/Oil Rights

Your contributions are tax deductible as they are given to Camp Wesley Pines, a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization.
